

National Center for
Healthy Housing

NATIONAL CENTER FOR HEALTHY HOUSING

- Contacts: Rebecca Morley, Jane Malone, Amy McLean Salls, Ruth Lindberg

- NCHH is the leading national scientific and technical nonprofit organization dedicated to creating healthy and safe homes for America's children through practical and proven steps.

National Center for
Healthy Housing

NATIONAL CENTER FOR HEALTHY HOUSING

- NCHH's staff of 17 have expertise in public health, environmental health, affordable housing and community development, urban planning, statistics, program evaluation, training, and public policy.
- NCHH has 20 years of experience helping communities (including agencies and non-governmental entities) with policy analysis, development, implementation, and evaluation.
- NCHH chairs the National Safe and Healthy and Housing Coalition, operates the Grassroots Advocacy Network for Healthy Housing, and manages the National Healthy Homes Training Center.

National Center for Healthy Housing

NATIONAL CENTER FOR HEALTHY HOUSING

Areas of Expertise

- Public Health
- Affordable Housing and Community Development
- Connection between Energy Efficiency and Health
- Healthy Housing Standards
- Biostatistics

Activities

- Document evidence-base for legislative and regulatory actions
- Craft communications with decision-makers
- Disseminate best practices from other jurisdictions
- Provide training
- Facilitate strategic planning
- Conduct program evaluation
- Conduct health impact assessments to inform decision-making