

State Summary

State	25 µg/dL	20 µg/dL	Two consecutive 15 µg/dL (90 days apart)	15 µg/dL	Two consecutive tests 10-14 µg/dL	10 µg/dL	5 µg/dL	Local health departments intervene at lower levels	Notes
California		X	X					Yes
Connecticut		X							Being lowered to 2 consecutive 15 µg/dL as of
Georgia					X
Ohio				X		X			Cincinnati and Cleveland intervene at 5 µg/dL. Investigation for a 10 µg/dL may or may not include a risk assessment depending on the situation.
Illinois						X			Law also authorizes primary prevention inspections in multifamily dwellings if 2 EBLLS have been identified in the same building during a 5-year period.
Indiana						X
Kansas						X
Maine				X
Massachusetts	x (mandatory)								Offered for all units with a child under 6
Michigan		X						Yes	No state mandate. For agencies that the state funds, they intervene at 10 µg/dL
Mississippi		X	X	X
Minnesota				X
New Jersey				X					Expected to be lowered to 10 µg/dL
North Carolina		X (required)	X			X (offered)		Yes	Guilford investigates for confirmed 8-9 µg/dL

State	25 µg/dL	20 µg/dL	Two consecutive 15 µg/dL (90 days apart)	15 µg/dL	Two consecutive tests 10-14 µg/dL	10 µg/dL	5 µg/dL	Local health departments intervene at lower levels	Notes
Oregon						X			Environmental investigation at 10 µg/dL or higher. Portland sends out educational materials for levels between 5 and 9 µg/dL
Rhode Island		X	X					Yes	Providence intervenes at 10 ug/dL
South Carolina		X	X
Texas		X	X					Yes
Vermont							X		Will automatically send education materials for 5-9 range and educate upon request for 5 and below
Wisconsin		X	X					Yes	