

CLPPP to Healthy Homes: List of Trainings

- University of Maryland Healthy Homes training
- Essentials for Healthy Homes Practitioners (National Center for Healthy Housing, www.healthyhomestraining.org)
- Motivational Interviewing (Joan Garrity: Garrity Health Consulting and Training)
- Child Protective Services (Baltimore City Department of Social Services)
- Housing Choice Vouchers (Coalition to End Childhood Lead Poisoning (www.leadSAFE.org/) and Baltimore City Department of Housing)
- Safe Sleep (Safe Sleep Initiative/Baltimore City Health Department)
- Fire safety (Baltimore City Fire Department)
- Carbon monoxide monitoring (Albert Donnay: Donnay Environmental)
- Moisture and Mold (Pat Breyse, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health)
- Asthma training (Pat McLaine, Nursing consultant)
- LAAP (Baltimore City Health Department's Lead Abatement Action Project)
- Documentation training (Mary Snyder Vogel, Social work consultant)
- Indoor Air Quality - City of Baltimore, Department of Finance, Division of Occupational Safety
- New healthy homes protocol and assessment, including how to issue housing violations if necessary (Baltimore City Health Department's Healthy Homes Division)
- Blood Borne Pathogens training- Baltimore City Health Department- Field Health Training